Appropriate members of our staff have reviewed your qualifications against our current personnel requirements in the hope that we could take advantage of your offer to be of service. Unfortunately, we find that we do not have an opening in which we could utilize your background and experience at this time.

We sincerely appreciate your desire to associate with our activity and regret that our reply could not be more favorable. Should a suitable vacancy occur at any future date, you may be sure we will contact you again.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Morano:

In view of your interest in Mr. [redacted], I am writing to advise you of the final outcome of his case.

STAT

As Mr. [redacted] indicated in his letter of 12 November 1957, Mr. [redacted] had been interviewed in September but had failed to return the personnel papers. Since receiving your telegram and Mr. [redacted]'s personnel papers on 2 December, his qualifications were carefully considered by all appropriate components of the Agency in the hope that we might be able to take advantage of his services. Unfortunately, in view of our current personnel situation, we find that we do not have a position which would be commensurate with his background and experience. A copy of the letter which our personnel people sent Mr. [redacted] is enclosed for your information.

STAT

We appreciate your interest in Mr. [redacted] and are sorry that we are unable to take any positive action on his application.
